

Terms & Conditions for Returns and Refunds

“Return” is defined as the action of giving/sending an item/units comprising an order/shipment back to Zilingo; purchased by the buyer on the Zilingo Application/Website. The following situations may result in a return being requested:

- a. Quality specifications of more than 5% of the units comprising an order/shipment, do not match the quality specifications of the (prototype) sample previously sent to the buyer, or seen by the buyer.
- b. Functional defects in more than 10% of the units comprising an order/shipment
- c. Products do not match the product related specifications/details mentioned in the PO/Order Sheet relayed by Zilingo to the supplier (after the same has been reviewed by the buyer/buying party).

Quality specifications here are defined by details mentioned in the PO/Order Sheet relayed by Zilingo to the supplier (after the same has been reviewed by the buyer/buying party).

Conditions for Return:

Orders/shipments are eligible for return from Buyer if:

1. a. Any of the previously mentioned situations arise at the time of inspection by Zilingo (or any Zilingo appointed Third-Party) at Port of Origin/Seller’s Office/Warehouse/Factory.
OR
2. Any of the previously mentioned situations arise at the time of inspection by Buyer, within a period of 15 days from dispatch at the (Buyer’s) destination port (after customs clearance).
AND
3. A. Zilingo appointed (internationally-accredited) Third-Party Quality Inspection Agency has reviewed, verified and confirmed that units/products comprising an order/shipment are subject to any of the previously mentioned situations (“The following situations may result in a return being requested: a-c”)
B. Defective units/products comprising an order/shipment must be in their unused, original condition, with original tags still on, and in the original packaging.

Sellers & Buyers are obliged to allow Zilingo, or a Party appointed by Zilingo to inspect quality of all (or a part therein) of the units comprising an order, prior to dispatch from Seller’s Factory/Warehouse/Office/Port of Origin; or at the Buyer’s Destination Port/Warehouse (only if the Buyer has initiated a complaint/the return process).

Details of the appointed (internationally-accredited) Third-Party Quality Inspection Agency will be divulged prior to an inspection taking place.

The Return Process:

a. To initiate the a Return process, the Buyer needs to send an email to the customer support team at b2b.sales@zilingo.com (or to the Account Executive who s/he has been communicating with from the Zilingo team), along with details of defective/scrutinized units comprising an order/shipment.

b. Subject to the order value, quantity, and where the Buyer is located, the Zilingo (internationally-accredited) Third-Party Quality Inspection Agency will reach out to the Buyer to inspect the products.

c. Only once our (internationally-accredited) Third-Party Quality Inspection Agency has verified that units/products comprising an order/shipment are functionally defect/compromises or mismatches the originally promised quality (or is subject to any of the previously mentioned situations (“The following situations may result in a return being requested: a-c”)) will the order be processed for a return. While the (internationally-accredited) Third-Party Quality Inspection Agency undertakes an inspection, Zilingo will inform the seller that his goods are being reviewed.

d. Having assessed the report generated by the Third-Party Quality Inspection Agency, and shared the same with the Seller; the Zilingo team will issue a Return Notice to the Seller. The Zilingo team will manage and ensure that all the refunds are processed, and will transfer Order related payments from Seller to Buyer.

e. The Zilingo Team will bear costs and manage all reverse logistics processes up until the point of bringing the returned products to a designated location (agreed upon between Zilingo and Seller), in a manner which will not further compromise quality of the units/products comprising the order/shipment being returned. Beyond the designated location, Zilingo and the Buyer forsake all liability and ownership of the order/shipment, and it is the obligation of the Seller to bear costs and manage transport to their factory/warehouse.

f. Seller is obliged to settle all reverse payments (i.e. from Seller to Zilingo) for return orders, within a period of 7 working days from the time a Return Notice has been issued by Zilingo to the Seller.

The Refund Process:

i. The Zilingo team will manage and ensure that all the refunds are processed, and will transfer Order related payments from Seller to Buyer.

ii. All refunds shall be made via the original payment mechanism to the party (Buyer) who made the original payment at the time of placing the Order.

ii. The processing of payment will take place within a period of 7 working days from the time a Return Notice has been issued by Zilingo to the Seller. This process is also subject to delays and legal processes followed by the respective banks and/or payment method & channels selected by the Buyer.

iii. Buyer can check status of refund by reaching out to the support team at b2b.sales@zilingo.com

iv. All refunds are conditional upon Zilingo's acceptance of a valid return of the order/shipment.

v. We reserve the right to modify the mechanism and conditions for processing refunds at any time without notice, and on a case-by-case basis.

The courts of Indonesia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any Return, Refund or Delivery related dispute between Zilingo (PT Zillion Tech Indonesia) and Buyer; or Zilingo (PT Zillion Tech Indonesia) and Seller.

The Company also reserves the right to modify, add or remove any clauses in these Terms or Conditions without prior notice. Any modifications, additions or removals however will be immediately reflected on the Zilingo Application and Website
